EDHS Cross Country Coach Named 2018 NFHS California Coach of the Year

El Dorado, CA – The National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) named El Dorado High School’s Cross Country Coach Dwayne “Peanut” Harms the 2018 NFHS California Coach of the Year for both Boys and Girls Cross Country.

Peanut began volunteering at El Dorado High School (EDHS) as a Freshman Girls Basketball Assistant in 2000/2001 and has been coaching there for the past 18 years.

He and his wife Tena were recognized at a recent Board Meeting where they thanked the parents, District, and the Board of Trustees for the great honor. EDHS Principal Matt Barnes stated that “While this is a great honor, the true measure of success for the Harms’ is not about wins and losses, but it’s knowing that they’ve developed countless young athletes into phenomenal adults. Making up their teams are students from all walks of life, experience, and capability - in the end what comes out is not just a team but a family. We are all well beyond congratulations. EDHS is forever changed and in debt to these two magnificent coaches and their tireless contributions.”
