EDHS Track & Field Co-Head Coaches Named 2019/2020 NFHS California Coach of the Year

El Dorado, CA – The National Federation of State High School Associations (NFHS) named El Dorado High School's Track & Field Co-Head Coaches Dwayne "Peanut" Harms and Tena Harms the 2019/2020 NFHS California Coach of the Year for Boys Track & Field.

The Harms' commented "We are appreciative of this prestigious honor and also appreciate the support that we have received in allowing us to serve our community and the great kids that we get to work with. Make no mistake about it, great kids make great coaches and we are humbled to receive this award given all of the great coaches in our Section."

EDHS Principal Matt Barnes stated that "While this is a great honor, the true measure of success for the Harms' is not about wins and losses, but it's knowing that they've developed countless young athletes into phenomenal adults. Making up their teams are students from all walks of life, experience, and capability - in the end what comes out is not just a team but a family. We are all well beyond congratulations. EDHS is forever changed and in debt to these two magnificent coaches and their tireless contributions."
